GOV. MORROW COMING

Gov. E. P. Morrow will be a guest of the Dishman Springs Hotel Saturday night, July 1st. On this occasion a ball will be given in his honor to guests of the hotel. Sunday afternoon, July 2, Mr. Dishman will ask Gov. Morrow to give his lecture on "The Trial of Christ." Other State officials will probably be present and the public is cordially invited to meet Gov. Morrow and the other gentlemen.

JOHN M. TINSLEY HONORED

The name of John M. Tinsley, Representative of Knox County in the General Assembly, has been approved as head of the Committee of Hygiene Survey for the State. This work is backed by the Rockefeller Institute which is conducting such work free of charge in the various states. Knowing this to be the case Mr. Tinsley at the last session of the Assembly put thru a resolution inviting the Rockefeller Institute to conduct such a survey in Kentucky and in recognition of that fact Gov. E. P. Morrow has made Representative Tinsley head of the committee.

WAR PICTURES

On account of the severe thunder storm on Saturday night which put the electric light plant out of commission for a time, the World War pictures could not be shown as advertised. However the Legionnaires secured the films for Wednesday night and they were shown before a large and appreciative audience. The very defects of the pictures proved they were taken under difficulties and showed the real work of the men at the front. The efforts of the Legion to bring these war scenes to Barbourville are greatly appreciated by her citizens.

BAIN-PARKER

Clarence Parker eldest son of the late B. E. Parker and Miss Sallie Bain were quietly married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Bain, Dishman St., on Tuesday morning at 8:30 o'clock.

The bride is a popular young lady. She has been a student at Union College where she did thorough work both in studies and in music. For the wedding ceremony which was performed by Rev. John Owen Gross of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the bride wore a charming gown of white and periwinkle canton crepe with large hat to match. She carried a bouquet of lovely white roses. Her traveling suit was of navy blue with small hat.

Clarence Parker is one of Barbourville's best known young men. He is owner and manager of the Grant Drug Co. and is becoming a successful business man.

After a tour by auto thru parts of Ohio and Kentucky, Mr. and Mrs. Parker will be at home in the residence on Pitzer street.

Vacation is not for idleness but for change.

CHICAGO HEARS OF BANTY

Charlie Smith's "Banty" hen which successfully met and defeated a rat and no quarter given, has just received a letter from a firm in Chicago which reads: "Save Your Chicks," enclosing a clipping of the banty-rat story. The rest of the letter is an ad for a rat poison. The outside world loses no chance to advertise.

KIWANIS MEETING

The usual Friday night meeting of Kiwanis was held at Hotel Jones with L. P. Brown, of the Steam Laundry, in the chair.

An excellent talk was made by C. P. Kennedy on the water supply of Barbourville, the speaker going into various phases of the subject showing that its source is from deep well supply thus insuring purity—a most important factor in the health of the city.

DEDICATION OF FLAG AND LEGION BANNER SERVICE

On Sunday evening a very impressive service was held at the Christian Church when the national colors and the American Legion banner were dedicated. Dr. G. M. Klepper made the presentation address taking our greatest national hero, George Washington, as his theme. He touched on his early life of Washington, that of wealth and culture; then he took up his military career, touching briefly upon his life as a war time leader and the fact that during the whole of the seven years of the war he never once passed the threshold of his own home or received one cent of pay; but the heart of his talk was that Washington is better fitted for the high place of the greatest national hero more on account of the real manhood of which he is a worthy ideal. He cautioned his hearers not to lose sight of the "man" in the "hero" for he could never have been the hero he has become to the American people if he had not been first a man of sound character and sturdy principles. Dr. Klepper always brings a true message so put that his audience is impressed with his sincerity.

Dr. Leslie Logan, in accepting the flag and the banner for the Legion said that to him and each member of the Legion the most pleasing fact of the service was that it showed that the people of the community still retain that interest in the men who took an active part in the war—an interest that was so enthusiastically expressed during that time.

Mrs. J. O. Gross sang the great French national anthem, "Marseillaise" most acceptably the rich volume of her voice being well suited to this music of intense feeling.

Under the leadership of Earl Mayhew the American Legion accepted the emblems of our country and their organization with a salute.

It is on such occasions as this that the work of Mr. Simms as leader of the band is appreciated.

The Stars and Stripes and the Legion Banner of purple and gold were the gift of the business men at Barbourville and of the women's clubs.

UNION COLLEGE ENDOWMENT

The Barbourville quota of the endowment being raised for Union College has been placed at $100,000. More than half this amount has already been subscribed. The following facts are of interest:

2 subscriptions for $5,000 were made in Barbourville; 10 subscriptions for $2,500; 15 for $1,000 and 11 for $500 besides many smaller gifts. This looks as if the people of Barbourville are standing by Union College, one of its best assets.

MOUNTAIN ADVOCATE PUTS IN ANOTHER MACHINE

The Mountain Advocate is trying to keep abreast of the times. Recognizing the value of pictorials as a means of keeping its patrons in touch with the events of the day and also the benefit derived by advertisers when their advertisements are illustrated, the Advocate has bought a stereotyping machine and has subscribed to a pictorial and advertisers illustrating service.

Some two years ago we did not need the advertising service but we are thankful to say that a number of merchants are now regular advertisers and it is for their benefit that we are buying the weekly service and have bought the machine. Also that our general readers may enjoy the pictorial service. Monday was spent in learning how to handle the machine which, being a new critter, called for further acquaintance, but we believe we now have the process down fine.

It is a pleasure for the Advocate to constantly improve its service and now we shall be able to better assist our advertisers both thru the Advocate and by the use of cuts on dodgers. As an evidence of our desire to bring the equipment up to date we may say that we have put over $2,000 in new equipment during the past two years.

GARLAND

Mrs. Hiram Garland, daughter of Marion Bowles and only about seventeen years of age, died last Monday and was laid to rest in the Patterson graveyard.
